

The Union-NAR Early Career Investigator Award Deadline for Submission: January 15, 2024

The Union-North America Region (NAR) Early Career Investigator Award (ECIA) was established in 2019 by the North America Region Executive Committee to recognize early career researcher for work in tuberculosis (TB) within the first five years of their academic appointment / independent professional career. The monetary portion of this award is to support research activities related to TB.

Information Regarding Nominee

Name of Nominee: _____

Title: _____

Institution/Agency: _____

Nominee First Faculty Appointment Date: _____
MM/Year

Mailing address: _____

City: _____ State/Province: _____

Zip/Postal Code: _____ Phone: _____

E-mail: _____

Information Regarding the Nominator:

Name of the nominator: _____

Title: _____

Institution/Agency: _____

Mailing address: _____

City: _____ State/Province: _____

Zip/Postal Code: _____ Phone: _____

E-mail: _____

Reason why you think the Nominee deserves the Award.

(A short summary of the nominee's main contributions and their impact on TB knowledge, prevention and /or care).

A nomination submission must include the following documents:

- A letter of nomination together with this application form from a Union member who is a clinician or scientist of good standing. The nomination letter must indicate the novel aspect or significance of the work, include a clear statement of the role of the nominee and explain the impact of the research.
- A curriculum vitae of the nominee outlining their education, past and current positions, grant support, training, and publications.

Is the individual aware of your nomination? Yes _____ No _____

*It is not necessary for you to inform the individual to be eligible for the award.

If you have any questions or to submit (by email) to:

Menn Biagtan, MD, MPH
NAR Secretariat,
Email: biagtan@bclung.ca