JOIN US AT THE 27TH ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE UNION-NORTH AMERICA REGION

The International Union Against Tuberculosis and Lung Disease North America Region (The Union-NAR) is pleased to invite your organization to participate in, exhibit at, or sponsor the 27th Union-NAR Conference in Vancouver, BC, Canada, at the Sheraton Wall Centre Hotel, February 22 - 25, 2022.

Recognized as the premier TB conference in North America, it is attended by renowned experts, researchers, physicians, nurses, government representatives, public health officials, opinion leaders, and policymakers in the field of tuberculosis and HIV.

The conference provides an excellent opportunity to connect exhibitors and sponsors with delegates leading the work in TB and lung health around the world. Gain visibility and recognition by showcasing your products and services while supporting the continued efforts to eliminate TB.

Opportunities include exhibition spaces, satellite sessions, distribution of branded marketing materials, and sponsorship of a service, event, or area.
